

Daya Materials awarded contract by Schlumberger -

Daya Materials has announced that its subsidiary Daya Maxflo has been awarded a three-year contract by Schlumberger for services in the Middle East.

The contract, which is for the provision of specialized well services in Saudi Arabia, will commence in the third quarter of 2016. The value of the contract was not revealed.

Daya Maxflo mainly focuses on well intervention, pipe recovery, sand management and production enhancement services.